Parksley High School Principal

Mr. Lawrence Hunter Woodward

Before most of you realize it, Parksley School will be a memory rather than one of the main phases of your daily life. It has been our purpose to prepare you to meet the experiences of life with a greater understanding and to face these experiences with courage and resourcefulness.

Individually you will walk many different paths in life; your education here is merely a beginning. Never forget that you can make of your life only that which you are willing to work for. It is our sincere wish that you will take advantage of every educational and spiritual opportunity along life's pathway, so that your life and its contribution will be both satisfactory and rewarding.

In 1927 this third building of Parksley High School was constructed. The memories of two fires and months of reconstruction are absent from my memory, however, for the P.H.S. I know has always stood here, educating my parents, friends, and now me. For nearly twelve years, I've had this building's acquaintance, and it has watched me grow from the day I sported my first cap and gown in kindergarten graduation until now, when its stage will soon watch me march to that same rhythm and in that dress once again.

Its outer face has never changed from the smiling doors now thrown open to me. Inside, its halls have brightened with new flooring and paint and the office and classrooms have consistently sported new principals and teachers to add variety to my stay. The change that has most fascinated me, however, has been the loss of a few more faces each year and receiving news that that girl or boy I once envied as a "senior" has become a lawyer or teacher in that "cold world."

Once, a long time ago, I was a junior and curiously wondered why in the world those seniors kept gazing over their shoulders for long glances at these windows and bricks they had known most of their lives. But now it is I who have come to the looking-back stage. Each class has moved on to make room for me, and now the "out" door has opened for my passage.

I've walked this same sidewalk in front of the building many a morning with a notebook to my face and never noticed until now how prettily the sun sparkles its windows and seems to invite me in. Perhaps this is the good memory to hold -- the morning sun on P.H.S. and the "in" door instead of the diploma and the "out." For many, I'm sure it has been just "out," but upon my class I wish it will be the hall through which to pass into a new and richer life.

And for those of you I leave behind, take a look at it again. In a year or two or three, you'll be standing here on my sidewalk, walking in for the last time, trying to memorize its face, and counting the steps up to the hall, too. Take your first good look at it now, put yourself in the picture, and share my wish that when you stand here in my shadow ready to leave, you, too, will forever remember.

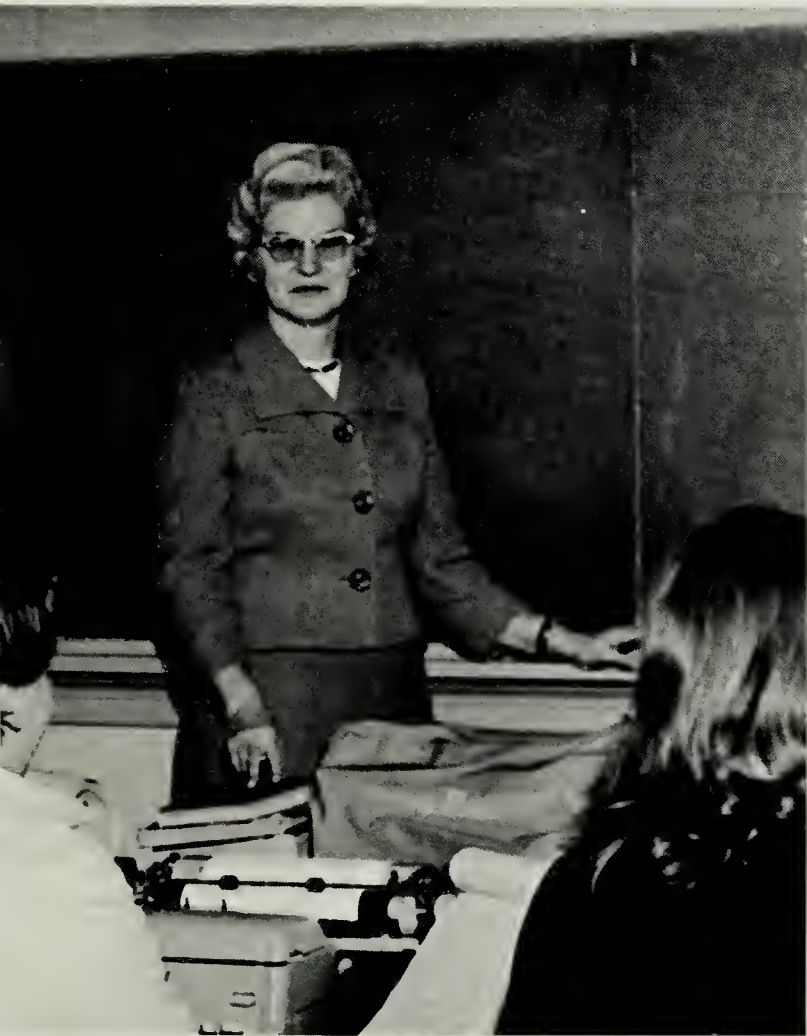

We Dedicate

Mrs. Edna Northam

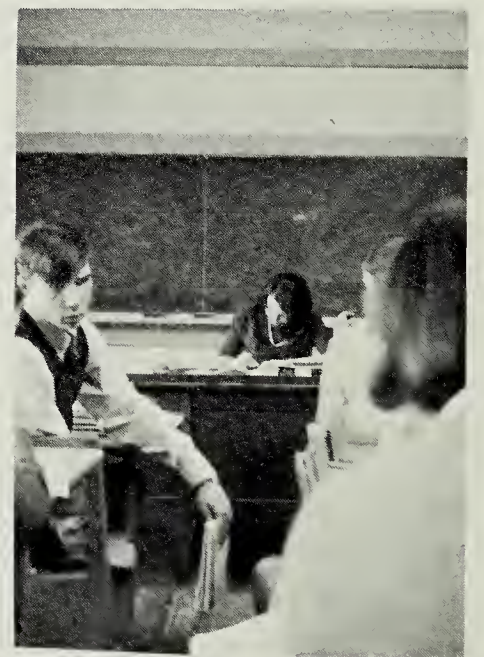

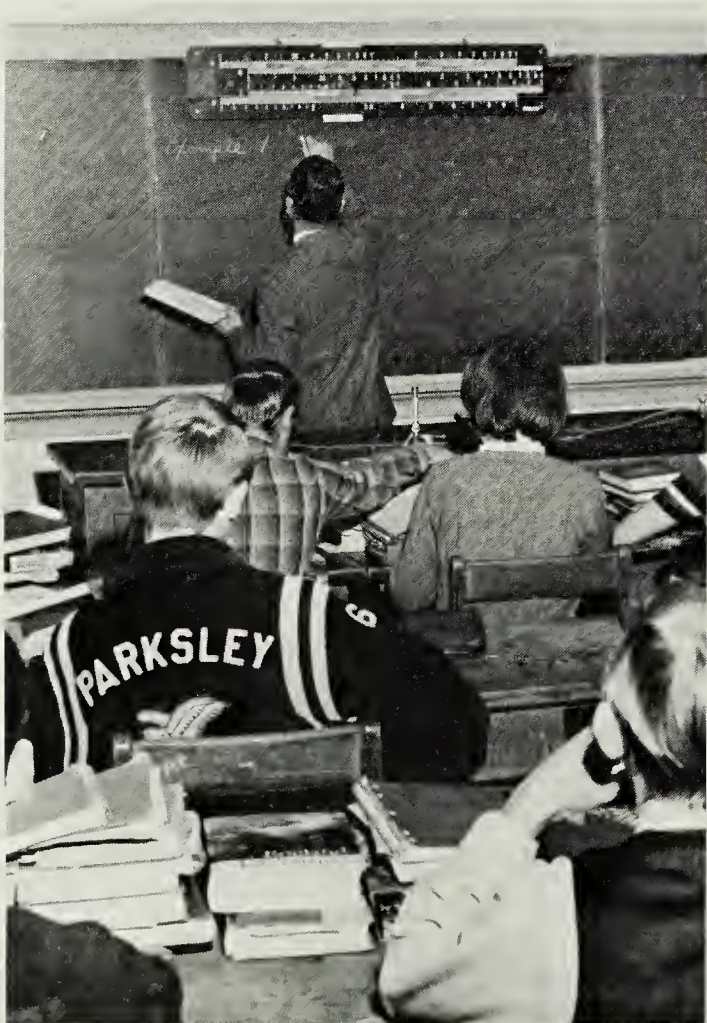

We, the Seniors of 1969 of Parksley High School, take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Edna Notham who has faithfully served the students here for the past fifteen years. Her activities at school have extended far beyond her Business Education classes. Not only has she, for many years, sponsored the Beta Club, but also she has spent many long hours helping the EAGLE'S ECHO staff publish the school paper. Therefore, it is with gratitude that we dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Edna Northam.

If freedom should die by hands who hate us to be free
And those who lived with me can be
And think and feel and love no more
The life we built on freedom's core.

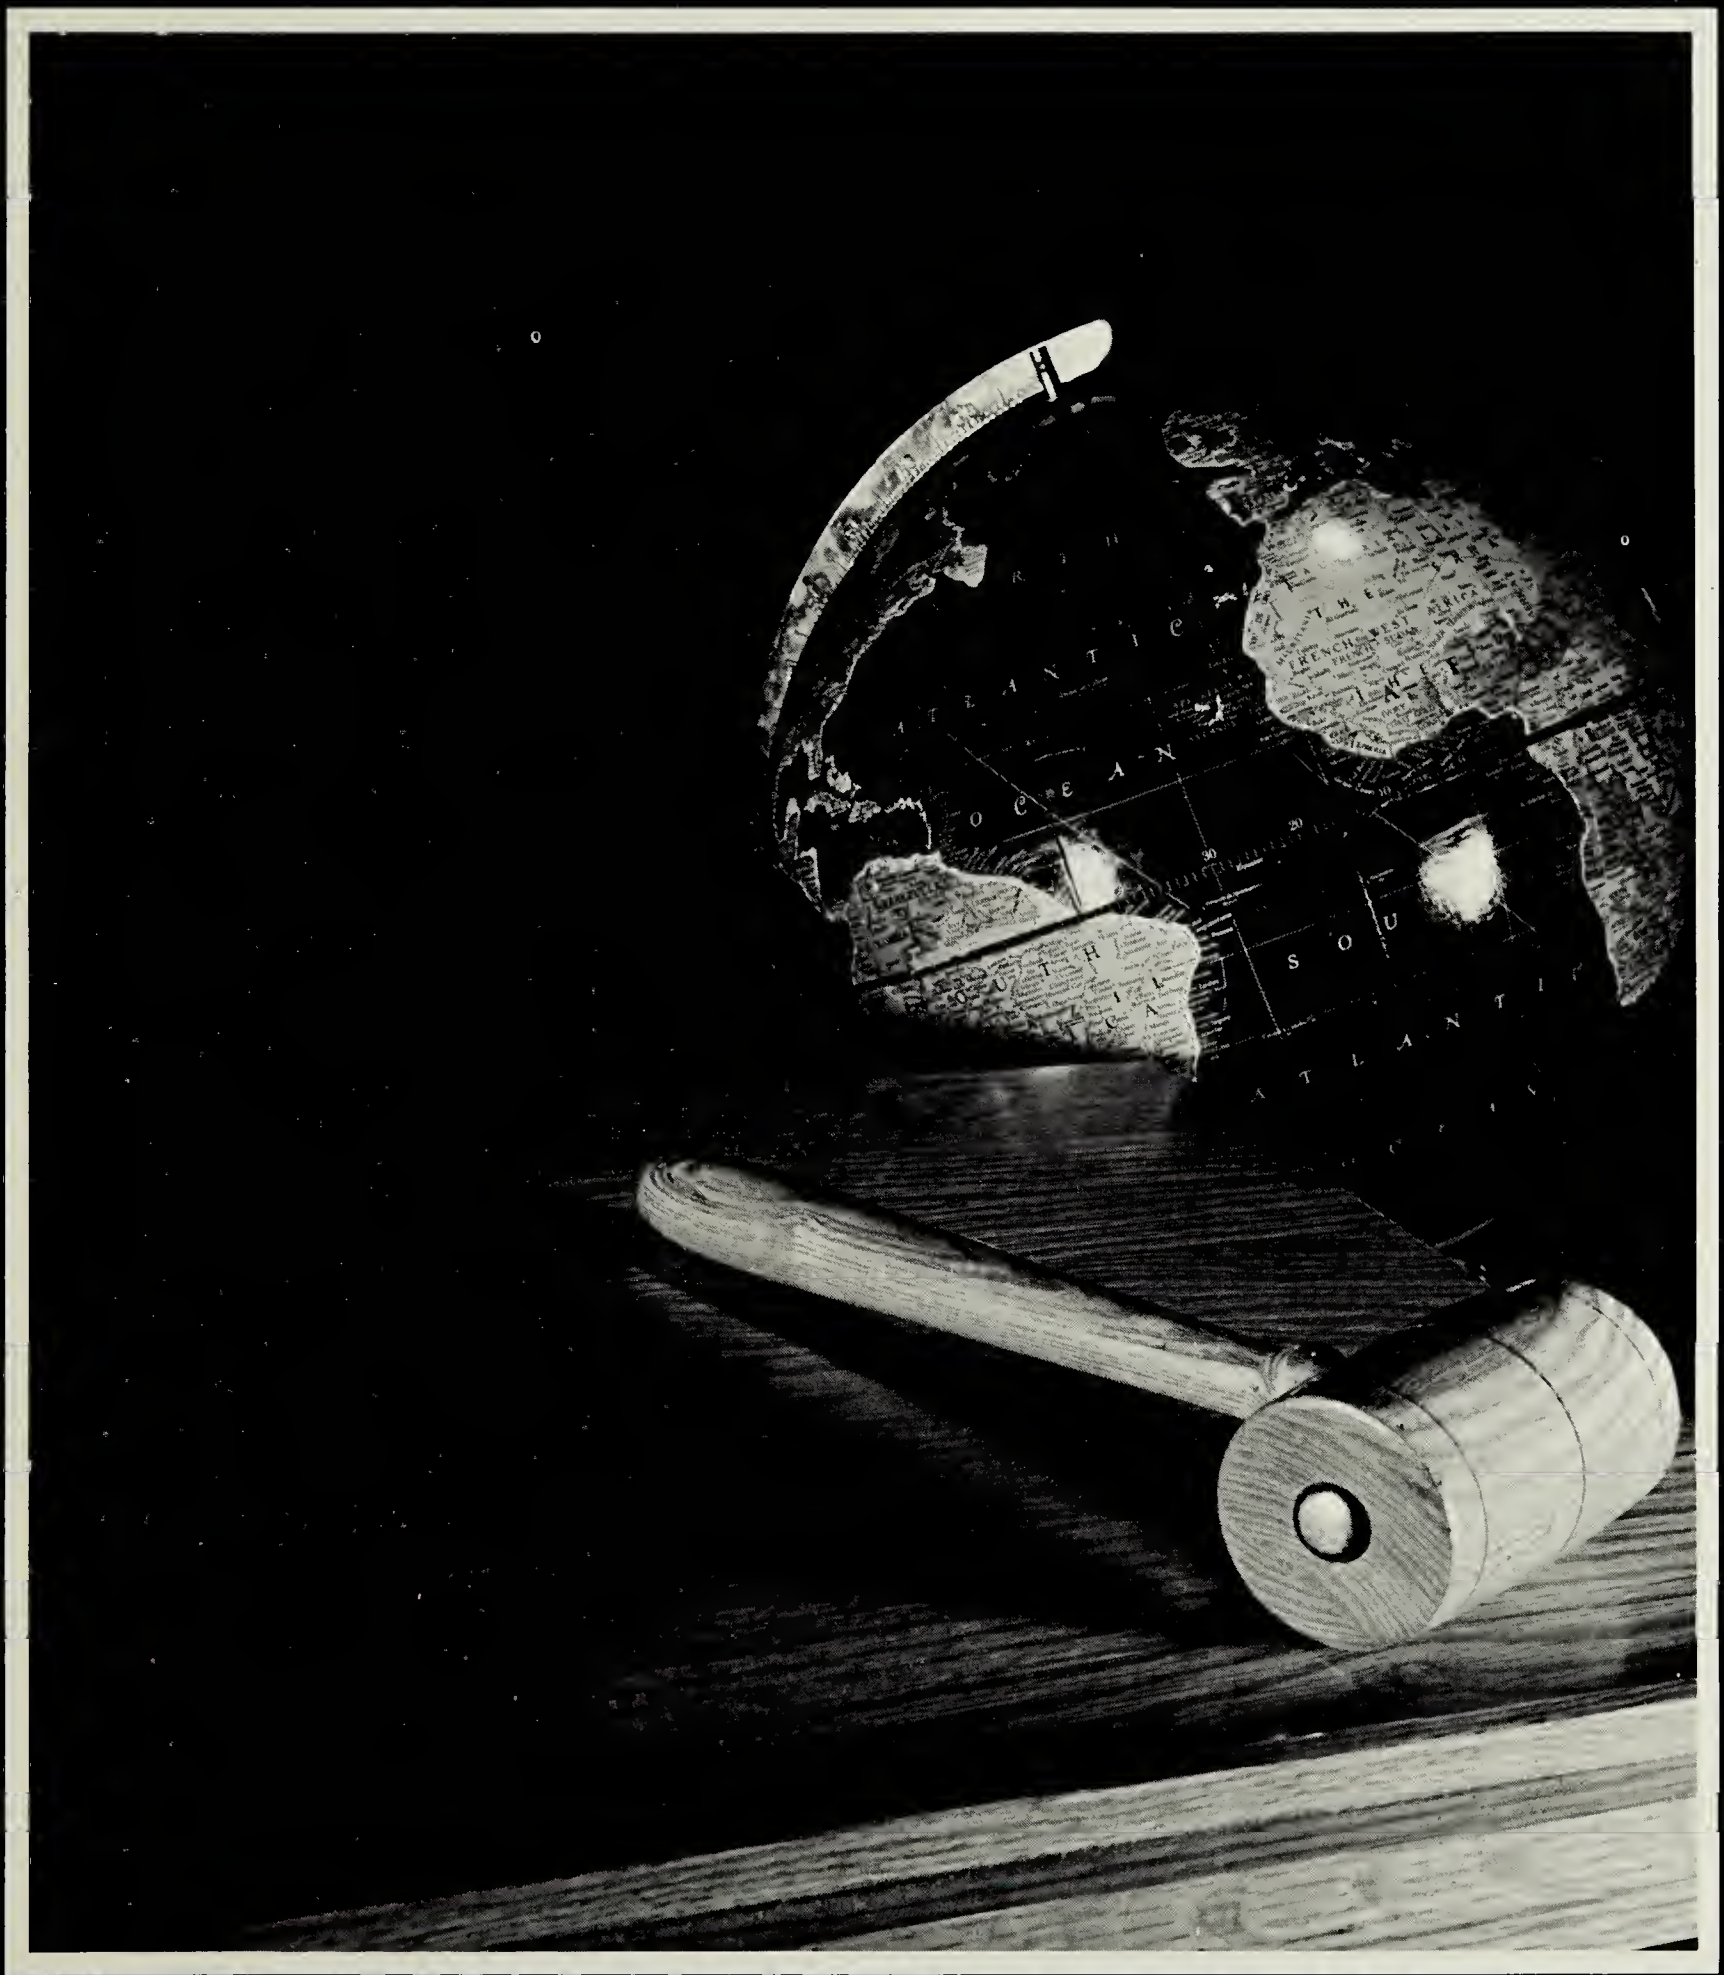

And if They don't leave to us our minds to live our will,
Nor grant us our old cause until
Our souls bury our prisoned fate
In doom, and even we begin to hate.

Then take you my flag, its flames let spiral up the sky
To heaven. And watch its freedom circle high,
Its sacrifice a dying prayer
To God. For God alone will care.

Let not the flag be made to share the capture of its land
Nor feel the tears or greedy enemy hands.
Give it the quick flight of a flame
To have the freedom it proclaims.

No longer then a waving hue of bold red stripes,
white field, or blue,
But God's own ashes with a freedom new.
With a smoke-curved message to all poles
Shall sing for us our oppressors' souls.

Our flag — the sign of freedom in which America bore it Shall serve as a link to God, a candle always lit.

Our Sponsors

With sincere gratitude we thank the teachers who have given their time and effort to sponsor school clubs. Their genuine interest and helpful guidance has contributed so much to the activities that have been a part of our school life at Parksley High School. Their excellent training and experience has proven time and again to be extremely helpful. We should like to extend our deepest appreciation to them for the time and advice given to us.

Although they must get tired of the many little problems that come up with these clubs, they are always willing to help us carry on the activities of the club.

The Beta Club is a national leadership and service organization which honors those juniors and seniors who have maintained a 90 or above average since entering high school. Its purpose is to honor high scholastic achievements and promote high ideals of honesty and service.

The members of the Beta Club are responsible for such things as the American flag and the Beta Club Honor Roll posted in the hall. The main event of the year is the annual Beta Convention for which everyone impatiently waits.

In all of their work, the Beta members strive to be better citizens.

Every student who attends Parksley High School is a member of the Student Council Association. However, the eighth to the twelfth grades elect representatives. These representatives take part in promoting school activities for the benefits of the school and its students with the approval of the principal.

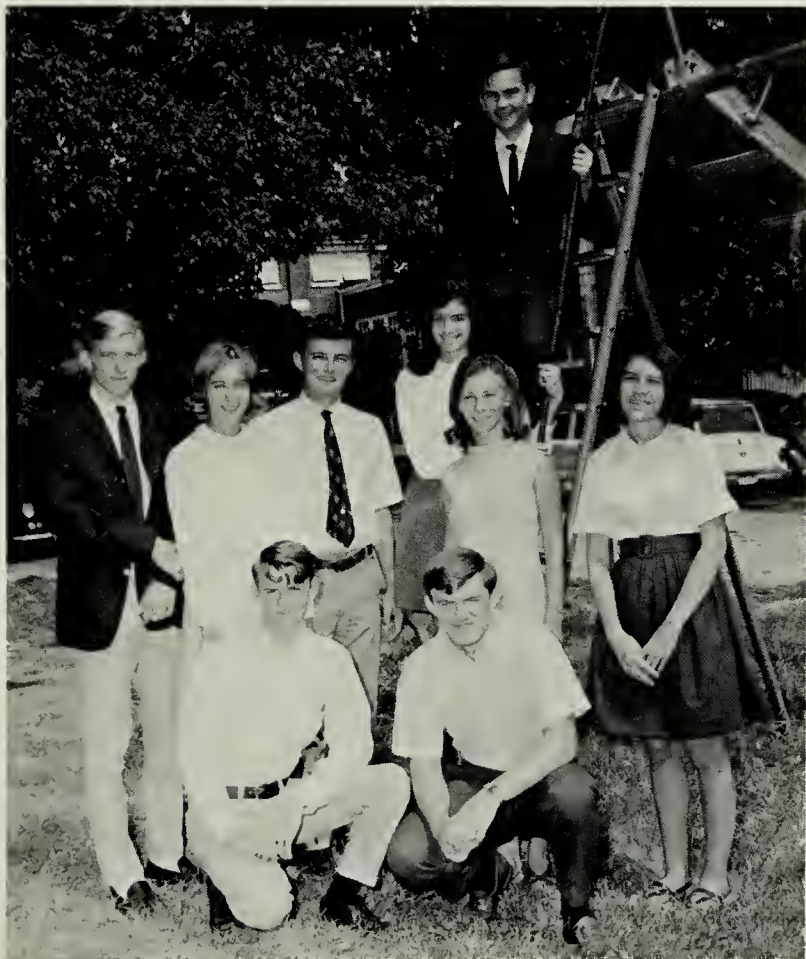

The representatives usually select projects or ways to raise money for various needs of the student body. The main project this year was a handbook containing various information on sports, clubs, general rules of the school, etc. which will be given each year to students entering the eighth grade.

Each year the president appoints a nominating committee who submits a slate of student officers to the student body for election by secret ballot.

It's that time of year again. Our annual is out again, and it's the end result of a lot of work. Most students have little idea how much work is involved in getting out this relatively small publication. Although there were, at times, disagreements among the staff members, generally we worked together to produce this book.

Give credit where credit is due, so here goes. First, let's thank our sponsor, Miss Morton. She was the one who spurred us on when we were lazy, which was often. Credit is also due to the staff members themselves. We also want to thank the teachers for their co-operation during the year. Remember that this yearbook is yours and that without you, the students, there wouldn't be a yearbook at all. Enjoy this book, because, after and above all, you're the ones it was made for.

Eagles' Echo

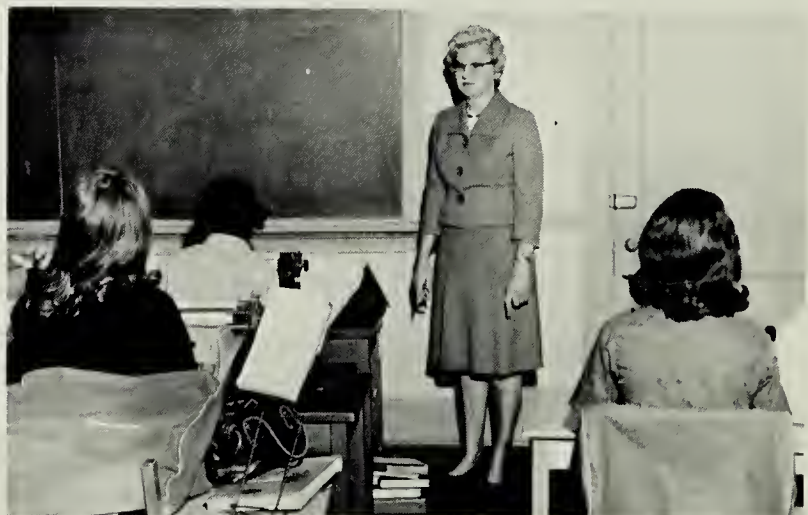

Advisor—Mrs. Northan, Nancy Baker—Editor, Susan Taylor—Junior Editor

The EAGLE'S ECHO is the school newspaper published by the Beta Club. It is staffed by members of the Beta Club and the other members of the student body.

Each class and organization elects its own reporter, while the Beta Club appoints special reporters for columns such as Sports, Gossip, and Jokes. The Editors sponsor Editorials in each issue.

The members of the Beta Club strive to promote school spirit by informing students of club activities and sports news.

F.H.A. is a club which prepares girls to be better homemakers. The club's motto is "Toward New Horizons." This is symbolic of the efforts of its members to improve personal, family, and community living.

The F.H.A. meets several times a year as well as participating in additional activities. Only girls who have had or are taking home economics are eligible for this club.

F.H.A. provides the opportunity for individual growth and achievement all of its members.

Co-Ed Hi-Y

Co-Ed Hi-Y is a Christain organization, established to create, maintain,
and extend a Christain fellowship throughout the school, community, and abroad. This year one of the most outstanding events of the club is "White Christmas" which is carried out to bring some family a happy and cheerful
Christmas. This is just one of the ways that the members and our leader, Mrs.
Lohr, worked for the betterment of mankind.

J. V. Cheerleaders

This was a great victory-filled year for the boys on the J.V. football squad. The J.V. cheerleaders cheered the boys on to victory with no points scored against them. Our boys won the district J.V. football Championship. The float, decorated by the cheerleaders themselves, looked very good in the varsity homecoming game. The cheerleaders also sold booster buttons to raise money for their float. All in all, the cheerleaders practiced hard to cheer the boys on, but in the end it was worth it.

Baseball Team

Co-Captains: Gene Mears and Jimmy Taylor

As a whole, the boy's Baseball Team did not have a very good year, but the team can be given a lot of credit for putting out their best effort. Although their hitting was not up to par, their pitching and defense were their best points. Mr. Wallace reports that the team will really look good this year if they just improve on their hitting.

As for the girls, this was the second year in a row that they missed winning that trophy by one game and by one run! If it hadn't been for a few over thrown balls, we would have won the Championship. But never fear, the Eagle Lassies are guaranteeing that the trophy will be sitting in the hall at the end of this year!

Thank You

We extend our appreciation to Mrs. Lwellyn Parks who has faithfully and efficiently served our school as secretary for many years. With her cooperative manners she has always been ready to lend us a helping hand.

We wish also to thank our custodians and the lunchroom ladies. We look forward each day to the hot lunches served to us and the patience rendered us by our custodians.

Co-Editors Message

Dear Students and Faculty of P.H.S.,

It has been a real pleasure putting together this book, and we hope that you will receive as much pleasure from it. We also hope it will help you remember some of the fun and good times you've had at dear ole Parksley High. It brings a tear to our eyes when we think that this is the last year that the class of '69 will be together in the great Eagle, but we are sure that the torch will be kept burning throughout the coming years.

Our many thanks go out to the faculty, Miss Morton, our advisor, and the Annual Staff for their cooperation in helping us make this yearbook a big success.

Good-bye P.H.S.

Pat and Nancy

Diane,

"Astronaut" from 3 years ago - Have certainly enjoyed having you in class and do hope you achieve ^{all} your goals in life. Have also enjoyed our discussions on "Life" in general + find it nice to find a student with any view point. Good luck next year + I hope you get to college + get into teaching (if that's what you want.) Don't forget all the good times + do take care. Will try to keep in touch. - Do the same.

Miss Morten

Dear Diane,

And now you have passed me! I stay while you get promoted beyond me. It has been a pleasure to have you in my classes the past two years. I'm sure you will always remain the good, conscientious student that you are now. Come to see me. Love, Helen Evans

Diane,

So a real sweet gal
with alot of brains.
Keep up the good work.
